WORKOUTS and ENFORCEMENT For the Secured Creditor and Equipment Lessor

FRANK PERETORE, Esq., Founding Partner, Peretore & Peretore, P.C. Mr. Peretore has over 20 years of experience representing national and regional financial institutions and lessors. He is a member and frequent speaker at The Eastern Association of Equipment Lessors (EAEL).

“As a 35 year Collection and Litigation Specialist veteran in the equipment leasing and financing industry, I can say with complete confidence that having this book on your desk is a must... In this single, extremely well organized volume, Mr. Peretore has compiled a wealth of law, strategy and documentation that will make this book the ultimate “go to” reference guide for the industry.”

—Stanley Zurbin, Recovery Team Leader,
Commercial Equipment Finance Group, G.E. Capital

Workouts and Enforcement for the Secured Creditor and Equipment Lessor is a step-by-step guide to representing secured creditors and equipment lessors from the workout through the litigation and bankruptcy process. It is a comprehensive treatise for the zealous yet efficient enforcement of the secured creditor and equipment lessors' rights, including strategies, applicable law, citations, and forms for maximizing the opportunities of a workout, swiftly securing collateral and avoiding litigation and bankruptcy pitfalls. This publication details each critical step in the workout and enforcement processes, combining the strategies, law, and forms for each important stage.

Features

- Enables attorneys to expertly protect and enforce creditors' and lessors' rights to maximize recoveries and minimize mistakes and lost opportunities
- Comprehensive coverage of the key provisions and strategies for any workout agreement, including the pitfalls to avoid, and extensive sample workout agreements and other forms
- User-friendly format allows the practitioner to quickly locate the law, strategies, and forms for each key stage of the workout or litigation
- Provides bank and leasing company workout and litigation specialists with the information they need to expertly manage accounts and better supervise outside counsel
